

PRESS RELEASE
Rutgers Master Gardeners of Monmouth County
Community Garden Education Series

The Rutgers Master Gardeners of Monmouth County are offering a free, three-session training program for current and future participants in any of the county's community gardens.

All sessions will be conducted at the Monmouth County Agricultural Building, 4000 Kozloski Road, Freehold, NJ 07728 on consecutive Thursday evenings, 6:30 – 8:30 PM.

“Starting a Community Garden,” February 23, 2017
“Harvesting and Food Safety” and “Composting”, March 2, 2017
“Keeping Pests out of the Garden,” March 9, 2017

Although highly recommend, attendance at all sessions is not required.

Space in this free program is limited, registration is required.

For more information, or to register, contact Rutgers Cooperative Extension of Monmouth County, at Dorothy.grimes@co.monmouth.nj.us, or 732-431-7260 ext. 7261.

Please register by February 13, 2017; closing date is February 27, 2017.

Volunteer through Horticulture