OFFICE OF HOMELAND SECURITY AND PREPAREDNESS

Sports and Special Events Incident Management (MGT-404)

The New Jersey Office of Homeland Security and Preparedness will be sponsoring two deliveries of a two-day training course titled: “Sports and Special Events Incident Management (MGT-404).” The course will be delivered by the Texas Engineering Extension Service (TEEX), a member of the National Domestic Preparedness Consortium (NDPC).

Description

This course emphasizes the unique aspects of response to an incident occurring during a sports or special event, including considerations for business continuity and after-action activities. The participant will learn the skills necessary to effectively manage an incident by applying and implementing a multi-disciplinary management team approach as described in the National Incident Management System (NIMS).

Audience

The course is designed to help develop athletic department staff, facility management personnel, campus public safety personnel, emergency response supervisors, and others involved in special event management to better manage incidents that could occur during an event.

Registration

All participants must have a FEMA Student Identification Number (SID). To create, retrieve or for additional information to obtain a SID, visit: <https://cdp.dhs.gov/femasid/>

Spaces are limited and preregistration is required no later than one week prior to each delivery. For your convenience please select the cell below for the date and location you wish to attend and you will automatically be linked to the associated registration form. This is the only method of registering for this training. All information is required and be sure to accurately enter your e-mail address given this will be our method of communicating with you. After completing the form, select the “Submit” button at the bottom of the link page.
