| Brief Program Description: CVR will provide a comprehensive Work Readiness Achievement Program (WRAP) designed to prepare WFNJ participants for sustainable, unsubsidized employment. Services will be individualized based on each participant's employment goals, strengths, skills, and identified barriers and will include employability assessment, life and soft skills development, job readiness and job search preparation, career exploration, digital literacy, financial literacy, resume development, interviewing skills, workplace competencies, and labor market awareness. Participants who demonstrate job readiness will be supported in transitioning to job matching, placement, and employment retention services. |                                                                                             |                                                                   |
