How Monmouth County Got Its Name

According to several sources, including a booklet, titled "A Sketch of Monmouth County," published in 1929 by the Board of Chosen Freeholders, Monmouth County was named after the County of Monmouthshire, in South Wales, Great Britain. According to the "Sketch," Monmouth County was officially formed on March 7, 1683, by the General Assembly as one of the four original counties of the Province of East Jersey. "It was named, through the influence of Colonel Lewis Morris, after Monmouthshire, where his family had a vast estate."

However, not everyone agrees. Robert N. Ferrell, the long-time historian and former Executive Director of the Monmouth County Historical Commission, believes that the County may have been named after James Scott, the Duke of Monmouth. The strikingly handsome Monmouth had the outward bearing of an ideal monarch, but he lacked the intelligence and resolution needed for a determined struggle for power.

Scott was born in 1649, the illegitimate son of King Charles II and nephew of James, the Duke of York, who succeeded Charles to the throne in 1685.

Banished from England because she claimed to be the king's wife, Scott's mother, Lucy Walter, settled with young James in Paris. In 1662 James was brought to England and installed at court as a favorite of the king, who on Feb. 14, 1663, named him Duke of Monmouth, Earl of Doncaster, and Baron Scott of Tindale and made him a Knight of the Garter.

With succession to the throne becoming a burning issue in England, where anti-Papal hysteria had been aroused by rumors that Catholics were plotting to seize power, James, the Duke of York, converted to Catholicism. King Charles blocked all parliamentary attempts to exclude James from the royal inheritance, and in September 1679 he banished the Duke of Monmouth from the kingdom. Nevertheless, the Duke quickly returned in defiance of his father and set about building up a following. In this crisis Monmouth was championed for the succession by several leaders of the anti-Catholic Whigs in Parliament. In 1682-83 Monmouth became involved in the Whig conspiracy against Charles and James, known as the Rye House Plot. Although pardoned for his part in this enterprise, he was banished from court and took refuge in the Netherlands early in 1684.

Upon the death of Charles II in 1685, the Duke of York acceded to the throne as James II. Monmouth returned to England with 82 followers in June and quickly raised over 4,000 men, but he was unable to rally the gentry to his rebellion. On July 6 his army of peasantry was totally defeated on the plain of Sedgemoor. He fled but was soon captured and beheaded in the infamous Tower of London.

The Duke, who had not yet been executed at the time of the naming of Monmouth County, had many friends and allies among the gentry of East Jersey. Richard Hartshorne, an associate of Monmouth's prior to leaving England, used the name "Monmouth" in a deed in 1678.

With all this said, we may never know exactly how Monmouth County got its name.
Thank you for acquiring a copy of the 2010 edition of the Monmouth County Directory.

This edition, like past editions, is designed to help you navigate through county government.

The directory is filled with useful information for the residents of and visitors to Monmouth County and includes listings of all 53 municipalities, public and private schools, county parks, libraries, hospitals, zip codes, chambers of commerce, local media and frequently asked questions.

Under the section of 'Elected Officials' you will find the names, addresses and contact information for all federal, state, county and local elected officials representing the citizens of Monmouth County.

We are currently in the process of updating our telephone system, and although when completed it will be more functional and easier to use, the process takes time, and there may be some number changes that will not be included at the time of this printing.

I know that the Monmouth County Directory will prove to be a helpful tool. I invite you to send us your comments and suggestions as to how we may better serve you.

Lillian G. Burry, Freeholder Director

Monmouth County is governed by five Freeholders elected at-large for three year terms. Each January, the Freeholders select one of their members to serve as the director of the board, to preside over the meetings and activities of the board.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders collectively oversees five mandatory functions of county government delegated to it by the state. Each freeholder is assigned responsibility for one of the functional areas. The following are the areas assigned to the individual Freeholders: Director Lillian G. Burry, Parks, Library & Public Services; Deputy Director Robert D. Clifton, Finance & Administration; John D’Amico, Commerce, Planning & Education; Amy A. Mallet, Human Services; John P. Curley, Public Works & Engineering.

Ordinarily, the Board meets twice each month, generally on the second and fourth Thursdays at 2:00 p.m. in a workshop session, followed by a formal Regular Meeting at 7:00 P.M. in the Hall of Records. During the months of March through September, on the 4th Thursday, the Workshop session is held at 1 p.m., and the formal Regular Meeting at 7:00 p.m. is held in one of the 53 municipalities that comprise Monmouth County.

Regular Meetings are those in which the Freeholders vote on resolutions and take formal action on the issues on the agenda. Workshop meetings are informal discussions of items to be considered at the next Regular Meeting. Both Regular and Workshop meetings are open to the public.

The meeting dates are posted, but persons desiring to attend a meeting are advised to call ahead, since the meetings are occasionally changed to accommodate holidays and other special events.

FREEHOLDER JOHN D'AMICO, a graduate of Harvard College and Harvard Law School, began his distinguished legal career in Freehold as a judicial law clerk. Early in his career he practiced law in Red Bank, after which he became vice president and counsel for a major insurance company.

In the 1970s, John D'Amico was well known throughout the state as a rail commuter advocate. He was founder and chairman of the Irate Shore Commuters and Shore Commuter Coalition, serving on committees concerned with the improvement of public transportation and spearheading many needed reforms.

In 1992, he was appointed by the governor as a Judge of the Superior Court of New Jersey, sitting in the Family Part of the Chancery Division and in the Civil Division in Monmouth County. While on the bench, he developed a new, streamlined trial procedure called an “Expedited Jury Trial,” which is now in use statewide. He also authored several published opinions and a number of articles on legal subjects.

On August 1, 2003, Judge D'Amico was appointed Chairman of the New Jersey State Senate in 1988 and 1989, during which time he sponsored several key bills on transportation and the environment, including a Green Acres Bond Act and the Clean Water Enforcement Act.

FREEHOLDER JOHN P. CURLEY was sworn in to a three-year term on the Monmouth County Board of Chosen Freeholders on Jan. 7, 2010. Currently in his first year in office, he oversees the county’s Department of Public Works and Engineering.

Prior to his election as a Freeholder, John Curley served as a councilman in Red Bank for more than five years. During that time he also served as a member of the Red Bank Zoning Board of Adjustment and was council liaison to the local Planning Board, the Historic Preservation Commission, Special Improvement District and the Public Works Committee.

As a Red Bank councilman, John Curley won passage of a resolution to place a cap on all municipal spending accounts. He also challenged placement of a helipad on the Navesink River, and worked tirelessly to stop a bulky solid waste station abutting a residential neighborhood. Additionally, he organized a grassroots effort to prevent a financially flawed parking garage proposal from creating a potential liability for Red Bank taxpayers.

Concerned about transparency in government, he also fought to change the time of the Red Bank council meetings to increase the public’s participation, and throughout his career as a councilman, he was a strong advocate of zero-based budgeting spearheading the adoption of strict anti-pay-to-play ordinances. To maintain Red Bank’s tax base, John Curley advocated redevelopment and rejected overdevelopment projects that would place stress on the Borough’s infrastructure.

John Curley is a graduate of Christian Brothers Academy and Thomas Edison State College. A lifelong, fourth-generation resident of Monmouth County. He grew up in Shrewsbury and lives in Middletown and is currently a trustee of the Christian Brothers Academy Alumni Association and a former trustee of the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, Central Jersey Chapter.

John Curley is vice president of his family’s car dealership located in Lakewood, Jim Curley GMC, Buick and Kia.

As a Freeholder, John Curley is the liaison to the following departments: Bridges, Buildings & Grounds, Central Motor Pool (Fleet Services), Emergency Management, Engineering, Fire Marshall/ Fire Academy, Highways, Public Works Department, Reclamation Center, Shade Tree Commission and Weights and Measures.
Elected Officials
FROM MONMOUTH COUNTY

U.S. Legislators/State Legislators

New Jersey Legislators, Senators and Assemblymen are elected from 40 legislative districts of substantially equal population. The voters in each district elect one Senator and two members of the General Assembly. The citizens of Monmouth County are represented by legislators from five Legislative Districts: 10, 11, 12, 13 and 30.

Legislative elections are held in November of each odd-numbered year. Assemblermen serve two-year terms. Senators serve four-year terms, except for the first term of a new decade, which is only two years. This “2-4-4” cycle allows for elections from new districts as soon as possible after reapportionment. Reapportionment happens every 10 years, after the Federal Census, when the boundaries of the 40 districts are redrawn to maintain an equal population in each district.

Each house elects a presiding officer from among its members - the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the General Assembly. They are first and second, respectively, in line of succession to the governorship. The President of the Senate serves as acting Governor when the Governor is out of the state.

The chief function of the Legislature is to enact laws. A proposal to make a new law, or to change or repeal an existing law, is presented to the Legislature in the form of a bill. To become law, a bill must pass both Houses by a majority vote and be approved by the Governor.

The Legislature can also propose amendments to the New Jersey Constitution. Such an amendment must be passed by a vote of three-fifths of each House (24 votes in the Senate and 48 votes in the Assembly). No action by the Governor is required. If passed, the proposed amendment is placed as a question on the ballot in November for a public vote. An amendment may also be presented to the voters if the Legislature passes it two years in a row by a majority vote.

Additional powers of the Legislature include Senatorial approval of the Governor’s appointments of judges and other high officials. The Legislature is also empowered to ratify amendments to the U.S. Constitution, appoint the State Auditor, judge the elections and qualifications of its members, and institute and conduct impeachment proceedings against State officials.

Constitutional Officers

The Constitution of the State of New Jersey authorizes the formation of the following elected county officers: The Surrogate and the County Clerk, each elected to five year terms, and the Sheriff, who is elected to a three year term.

Our state constitution also provides for the appointment by the governor of a Prosecutor for a five year term of office. The freeholders are responsible for providing funds, facilities and personnel for the operation of these offices. While under state law the freeholders do not supervise the activities of these offices, they do cooperate fully with these four co-partners in county government.
The Surrogate is an elected office authorized by the Constitution of the State of New Jersey which carries a five-year term. The Surrogate's Court is a department of county government, as well as a branch of the Superior Court of New Jersey in the Chancery Division. The Surrogate serves as Deputy Clerk of the Superior Court, Chancery Division, Probate Part, and Chancery Division, Family Part for adoptions, as well as Judge of the Surrogate's Court.

The County Surrogate has the authority to qualify executors and trustees named in wills, to appoint administrators for those who die without wills, and to appoint guardians for minors and legally incapacitated persons. The office is also responsible for overseeing the procedure in contested estate matters, in the declaration of incapacity, in appointment of guardians, and in the granting of adoptions in the Superior Court of New Jersey.

The Surrogate is the custodian of the permanent records of such estates, wills, guardianships, and adoptions. All permanent records dating back to the late 1700's are filed in the Surrogate's Court providing information for title searchers, genealogists, and local historians. The Surrogate places adoption records under seal and maintains these records. The Surrogate's Court is also custodian of funds awarded to minors through settlements, inheritances, or as beneficiaries of life insurance proceeds.

The Surrogate's office is located on the first floor of the Hall of Records, 1 East Main Street, Freehold. There are also three satellite offices: the Middletown Library, Tuesdays from 9am to 4:30pm; the Wall Township Library, 2700 Alaire Road, Wednesdays from 9am to 4:30pm; and the Ocean Township Library, 701 Deal Road, Thursdays from 9am to 4:30pm. Appointments should be made in advance for the satellite offices.

Rosemarie D. Peters, Esq., is serving in her first term as Monmouth County Surrogate. She was a member of the Middletown Township Committee and served as Mayor and Deputy Mayor. She is also a former member of the Middletown Planning Board and the Zoning Board of Adjustment.

Mrs. Peters is a past member of the Executive Board and Legislative Review Committee of the NJ State League of Municipalities. She is a graduate of Rutgers School of Law-Newark, Thomas A. Edison State College, and Brookdale Community College.

The County Clerk is an office authorized by the Constitution of the State of New Jersey and carries a five-year term.

M. Claire French, a resident of Monmouth County for more than 40 years, has been serving as County Clerk since January 1997. Ms. French lives in Wall Township with her husband Robert.

Prior to her election as County Clerk, Ms. French served the Township of Wall as Mayor, a member of the governing body and Vice Chairman of the Planning Board.

In 1986, the Board of Chosen Freeholders appointed Ms. French to organize and serve as the first Chairman of the Monmouth County Improvement Authority, an office she held for 10 years.

Previously, she was appointed by Governor Kean to serve as a member of the Job Training Council and by Governor Whitman to serve on the Local Finance Board.

Additionally, Ms. French served on the Board of Directors of a number of civic and community organizations including the Central Jersey Blood Bank and the Information Age and Learning Center-Camp Evans. Currently she Chairs Meridian Hospital’s Government & Community Relations Committee; is on the Board of Directors of Central Jersey Bank; has membership with the Monmouth County Association for the Blind and the Executive Board of the 200 Club.

The County Clerk’s responsibilities can be divided into four functions: Recording, Elections, Archives and Passports.

The Recording Division is responsible for recording all real property records for the County to include mortgages, land title deeds, liens, and trade names, in addition to other documents. Ms. French pioneered the Electronic Recording Technology in New Jersey which is now shared with 11 other counties.

The Election Division prepares the actual ballot, processes vote-by-mail applications, tabulates election totals and certifies results to the Secretary of State.

The Archives Division stores a high volume of county records, some of which date as far back as the 17th century and also makes them available to the public.

The Passport Division assists persons seeking passports. The County Clerk’s Office also provides identification cards to County residents and administers oaths to notaries and public officials.
Sheriff Shaun Golden is the chief executive of the 642 member, $68 million agency. He is in charge of Monmouth County’s largest law enforcement agency, the 1,328 bed maximum security Monmouth County Correctional Institution, the Monmouth County 9-1-1 Communications Center and the Civil Process Unit.

Throughout the years, the Monmouth County Sheriff’s Office developed innovative programs and partnerships including the Citizens Leadership Council, Citizen’s Police Academy, Sheriff Youth Week, Prison Awareness, Identification Cards, Identity Theft, seatbelt safety awareness and court security initiatives.

Cooperative efforts with the Office on Aging resulted in “Senior Scan-Seniors Fighting Terrorism,” “Project Lifesaver,” an electronic monitoring program for people with memory disorders, “Safe Surfing for Seniors,” a program on Internet safety, and Triad, bringing law enforcement and seniors together to address the needs of Monmouth County seniors.

The Monmouth County Sheriff’s Office is nationally accredited in all areas of operation, and continues to maintain or exceed those nationally accepted standards.

Prior to Sheriff Golden’s appointment, he served as undersheriff where he was responsible for the Monmouth County 9-1-1 Communications Center and the operations of communications and computer networking equipment for county and municipal agencies. He has been instrumental in promoting and implementing shared services with towns at cost savings measures through the 9-1-1 Communications Center.

A lifelong resident of Monmouth County, Sheriff Golden is experienced in law enforcement and public administration. As a career law enforcement officer for 18 years, he served as a police officer with the Colts Neck Police Department, and the Toms River Police Department where he was responsible for the information and technology office. He worked as a certified paramedic for MONOC, serving Monmouth and Ocean Counties, and was a volunteer firefighter and EMT.

Sheriff Golden holds a master’s degree in administration from Seton Hall University, is a NJ Certified Public Manager and an adjunct professor at Monmouth University with the Department of Political Science and Public Policy.

The County Prosecutor is appointed by the Governor to serve a five-year term. The Monmouth County Prosecutor’s Office deals with approximately 15,000 cases annually and employs over 50 lawyers, 80 detectives and a support staff of more than 150. As chief law enforcement officer, the Prosecutor works closely with municipal, county, state and federal law enforcement agencies to investigate and prosecute crimes committed in Monmouth County. The Prosecutor’s Office has many diverse and specialized investigative units which focus on violent crimes, sex crimes, child abuse, official misconduct, public corruption, gangs, financial and computer crimes. The Prosecutor has the ultimate responsibility for determining which criminal cases should be brought to trial. The Prosecutor also supervises all municipal prosecutors.

Luis A. Valentin earned an undergraduate degree in Psychology from Seton Hall University in 1986 and a Juris Doctor from Rutgers University School of Law in Newark in 1989. He is admitted to the New Jersey Bar and the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey.

In 1998, Valentin was appointed as an Assistant U.S. Attorney for the District of New Jersey where he worked in the Criminal Division, Fraud and Public Protection Division and Special Prosecutions Division and in 2003 was named Chief of the Violent Crimes Unit.

MONMOUTH COUNTY is one of the four original counties of East Jersey, the others being Bergen, Essex and Middlesex.

At the time of its creation, Monmouth County encompassed all of the present day Monmouth and Ocean counties. It ranks as the sixth largest county in terms of area.

Inhabited by more than 659,000 residents, Monmouth County is ranked as the fourth largest county in the state in terms of population.

One of the highest points on the east coast of the United States is the highlands of northeast Monmouth County. These are the first lands one sees, coming from the ocean into New York Harbor. It was this land that the Dutch explorer, Hendrik Hudson, saw in 1609 as his ship, the Half Moon, made its way into the river that today bears his name. In his ship's log, dated “September 2d, 1609,” Hudson wrote, “this is a very good land to fall in with and a pleasant land to see.”

Freehold was established as the county seat in 1719.

The first and now the oldest continuously operational lighthouse in the country was placed in service at Sandy Hook in 1764.

The Battle of Monmouth took place on June 28, 1778, in what today is Manalapan and Freehold Townships. It was the largest and fiercest battle of the American Revolution, and was where Mary Hayes gained fame as “Molly Pitcher” who carried water to thirsty American soldiers during the scorching hot weather. Later, she took up her husband’s position at an artillery piece when he was wounded.

Every major American general of the War participated in the Battle, including General George Washington, who rallied his retreating troops to carry the day. It was the first major engagement in which the American forces took the offensive.

Most historians conclude that the Battle of Monmouth was the turning point of the American Revolution. Monmouth Battlefield State Park located on Route 33 preserves the site of the conflict.

In the mid-to-late 1800’s the seaside resorts of Monmouth County began enjoying an extraordinary reputation thanks to First Lady Mary Todd Lincoln who began vacationing at Long Branch followed by visits from Presidents Ulysses S. Grant, Rutherford B. Hayes, Benjamin Harrison, James Garfield and Woodrow Wilson. In 1881 President Garfield died in Long Branch, the result of wounds suffered at the hand of an assassin.

The 20th century brought Fort Monmouth, a national military electronics command center, to the county along with the Garden State Parkway. The Parkway opened up the Jersey Shore to beachgoers and the eastern portion of the county to residential development by commuters to the New York and the northern New Jersey business centers. Likewise, the widening of Highway 9 in the 1960’s, in western Monmouth County, spurred development in that region.

Monmouth County -
53 Municipalities - One Community

PLEASE BE ADVISED THAT ALL TELEPHONE NUMBERS
WITHOUT A LISTED AREA CODE MUST BE DIALED WITH 732

THIS SECTION IS DEVOTED to the 53 municipalities that comprise the 471.74 square miles of Monmouth County. It lists addresses, telephone numbers and most of the major officials in each town.

UNDER CURRENT LAW, there are four basic forms of municipal governments, each deriving its powers from the New Jersey Legislature. The four basic forms of government are: township, borough, city and town. In addition, the Legislature has enacted the "Faulkner Act," which enables municipalities to select a form of government which is a variation on the four basic forms. In addition, a fifth form of government, the village form, exists in just one municipality in New Jersey, the Village of Loch Arbour, in Monmouth County.

IN MONMOUTH COUNTY there are 35 boroughs, 15 townships, 2 cities and 1 village.
The townships of Aberdeen, Howell and Ocean are governed by the township form of government, but under variations of other forms. Ocean Grove, a unique community of great historical significance, is part of Neptune Township.

ALSO, we have included some of the more commonly used names of neighborhoods and towns within our "official" 53 municipalities. Most are still in use today; some have disappeared altogether. You will find our list at the end of the Municipalities Section. We are proud of each and every one of them.

WE INVITE YOU to visit the county's website at www.visitmonmouth.com

MORE DETAILED INFORMATION regarding the various forms of government in New Jersey can be found at the Monmouth County Library.

Committee Meetings: 4 times Annually

The Ocean Grove Camp Meeting Association was founded in 1869 as a Methodist Camp Meeting. Ocean Grove quickly grew to become a legally recognized municipality and it remained such until 1980. In 1980, Ocean Grove became an official part of Neptune Township and remains under its jurisdiction today. As such, all municipal services are provided by Neptune Township. Ocean Grove is one of America’s most historic and unique towns. The Camp Meeting and subsequently the community were founded by a group of dedicated ministers and lay people who were committed to providing a place for spiritual birth, growth, and renewal in a Christian seaside setting. The Camp Meeting operates a year-round program of spiritual, educational, cultural, and recreational programs for all who want to participate.

Ocean Grove is affectionately referred to as "God’s Square Mile," and there are many shows and activities presented in and around the Great Auditorium each year.

In the early part of each year, the Board of Chosen Freeholders adopts a resolution establishing a schedule of meetings for the entire year. Most meetings are held in the Freeholders’ Meeting Room on the second floor in the Hall of Records, 1 Main Street, Freehold. From March through September, the second regular meetings are held in various municipalities throughout the county, generally in the town halls of the respective towns.

Workshop Meetings are informal discussions between freeholders, staff, counsel and advisors. Once a matter is settled, it is placed on the agenda of a Regular Meeting; the meeting in which the Board takes formal action. The public is invited to all meetings.
