

Feb. 6, 1958

A regular meeting of the Planning Board was held on Thursday evening, Feb. 6, 1958 at 8:30 P. M. with Charles Tassini, presiding. Members Louis Green, James Van Schoick, George Dempsey, A. D. Voorhees, Donald Osborn, and George Jørgensen were present.

The same officers as last year were duly elected, that is, Dr. Charles Tassini, Chairman of the Board, and V. Miller Preston, Secretary. (Secretaries salary $100.00 per annum)

A discussion was held regarding the parking lot area, and street from Union Avenue to South Street.

The following items were deemed necessary.

1. The Van Brunt house to be sold and hole filled in.
2. Fill and gravel be spread at once under the supervision of Mr. Jørgenses. Pipe (new section) to be covered.
3. Raffette garage to be moved, and project from Jecklins west to the Bank property, started.

It was generally agreed that the most important thing right now was to get fill and gravel into the area.

Meeting adjourned.
